

Consumer Program

Australasian Rare Lung Disease Conference 2021

What works for me: Experiences of self-management in Pulmonary Fibrosis (PF)

Thursday 12 August | 1:00pm – 2:00pm (AEST)

Presenters: Ms Karen Symons, Interstitial Lung Disease (ILD) Nurse Specialist Prof Anne Holland, PF Researcher, and a panel of patient-speakers

This interactive panel presentation moderated by Ms Karen Symons, will explore patient perspectives and tips for self-management strategies in navigating of life with PF. Live Q&A will be available throughout the session.

Diagnosis, management and unmet needs in progressive fibrotic lung diseases

Tuesday 17 August | 10:00am – 11:00am (AEST)

Presenter: Dr Kerri Johansson, Clinical Associate Professor of Medicine and Community Health Sciences

This session will provide an up-to-date overview of the diagnosis and management of Idiopathic PF and introduce the concept of progressive fibrosing ILDs. Participants will gain an understanding of both challenges and progress in the field. Live Q&A will begin at 10:30am.

Register today

To register, scan the QR code or visit

arldc.lungfoundation.com.au/consumer-program.html

In collaboration with: